

THE FUTURE OF CAPITAL MARKETS

A NEW ERA IN CAPITAL MARKETS

Bitfinex Securities is a leader in the transformation of capital markets and represents a fundamental shift in how enterprises raise funds and how investors access investments. By merging blockchain innovation with institutional standards, we deliver a platform where issuers and investors can raise capital and make investments quickly and efficiently.

LICENSED AND REGULATED

Bitfinex Securities operates under licenses in El Salvador and at the Astana International Finance Centre in Kazakhstan, providing a robust regulatory framework for both issuers and investors. This foundation ensures transparency, compliance, and delivers on our mission to operate as a global marketplace.

OUR PRODUCTS

TOKENISED EQUITIES

Bitfinex Securities offers companies a regulated, global solution to raise capital through tokenised shares. Issuers can admit shares to public trading, while investors gain access to innovative equity opportunities around the clock.

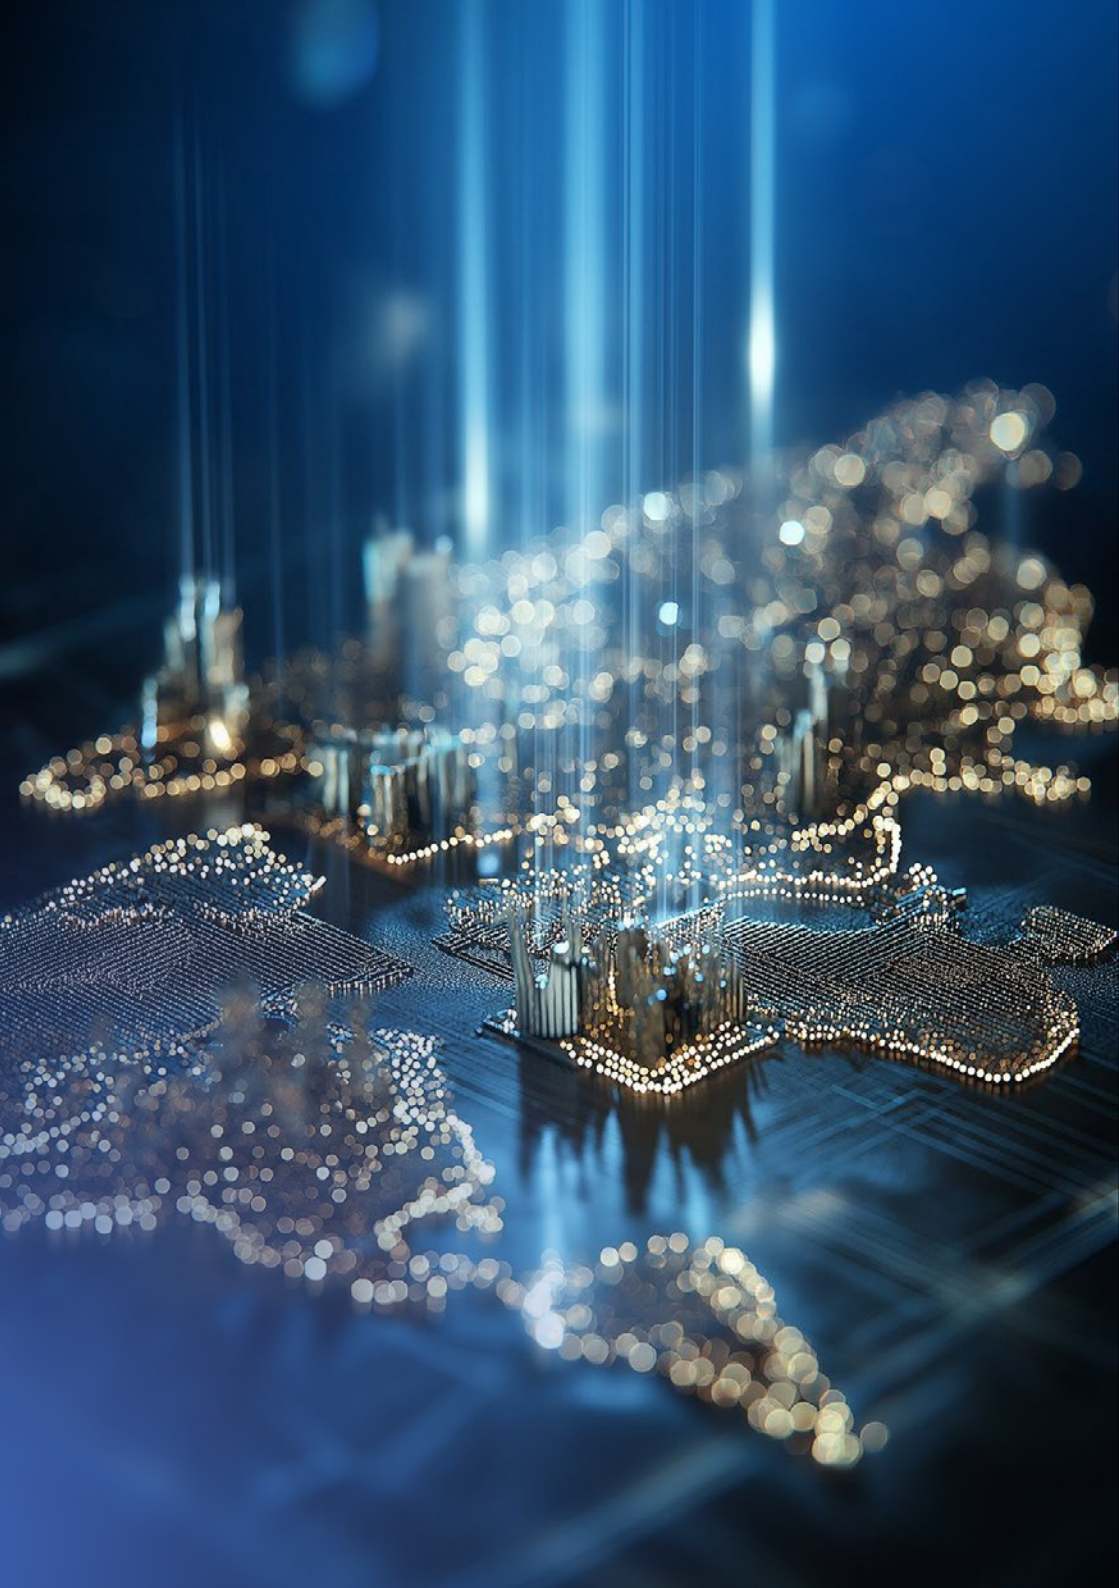

TOKENISED DEBT

Tokenised bonds and debt instruments on Bitfinex Securities remove the inefficiencies of legacy markets. Issuers benefit from fast, compliant, and transferable debt issuance, while investors access new yield opportunities in a 24/7 marketplace.

TOKENISED FUNDS

We provide a regulated bridge between fund managers and global investors. Fund managers can deploy funds into regulated markets, offering investors access to alpha strategies and diversification.

ADDITIONAL PRODUCTS

Beyond equities, debt, and funds, Bitfinex Securities also supports tokenised securities linked to real estate, commodities, litigation finance and hashrate contracts — expanding the spectrum of investable assets and enabling innovative capital formation.

BITFINEX

Securities

The Future of Capital Markets.

Licensed in Kazakhstan and El Salvador, Bitfinex Securities redefines how tokenised securities are issued and traded. We combine deep liquidity with advanced technology to provide enterprises with efficient capital-raising solutions and investors with access to innovative digital asset opportunities.

With Bitfinex Securities, you can stay in control while navigating a new era of global finance.
